

Ryann Whalen

COUNSEL

Chicago

312.642.6027 | rwhalen@mcdonaldhopkins.com

OVERVIEW

Ryann Whalen is a trust and estates attorney with more than 28 years of experience counseling individuals, families, executives, and business owners on estate planning, trust administration, wealth transfer issues, charitable planning, and asset protection techniques. While Ryann works with a wide variety of clients, her expertise lies in the issues facing high-net-worth families, corporate executives, and business owners. She also represents individual and corporate executors, trustees, and guardians in estate, trust, and guardianship administration.

Ryann earned her B.A. from the University of Wisconsin and her law degree from Marquette University.

Practice Focus

Estate planning and probate | Probate and estate administration | Transfer tax planning and audit representation | Trust administration

Credentials

EDUCATION

Marquette University Law School

University of Wisconsin

ADMISSIONS – STATE

Illinois

Wisconsin

Ryann Whalen

Professional & Civic

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Chicago Bar Association

Wisconsin State Bar Association

Serbian Bar Association; Past President

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Served on Parent Association Executive Committee at the Latin School of Chicago

News & Insights

NEWS | JULY 28, 2023

Experienced estate planning attorney Ryann Whalen returns to McDonald Hopkins